Little William Forman, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Forman, who has been very ill of diphtheria for the past few days, was very much better yesterday evening.

Mr. Robert King, of Alva, Okla., who is the guest of relatives in this county, was in attendance at the Fair Saturday. This is his first visit to Ohio county in many years.

Messrs. John C. Riley, John T. Moore and G. E. Likens left yesterday for Louisville to attend the State Bankers' Convention. Mr. Likens was accompanied by his wife and little son.

Messrs. E. T. Williams, R. H. Barnes, J. E. Chick and J. B. Blankenship, Beaver Dam, Van May, Horton, A. W. Mills, Bada, Dudley Ford, East Hartford, were among our callers Monday.

Mrs. Mary A. Duncan, who has been the guest of relatives at Greenville for the past several weeks, arrived in Hartford Thursday and is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. F. L. Felix.

Our machine man made the Herald say that the Ohio County Telephone would be sold Sept. 31st, 1907, when it should have said Sept. 21st. See the sale notice, as corrected, in another column.

Mr. R. C. Rains, son of R. H. Rains, Manda, who has been stationed in the Philippines for the past two years, is on his way back to the States. He will be stationed at Fort Leavenworth, Kan.

Mr. Albert McCrocklin, Graham, formerly of Hartford, spent a few days with relatives here during the fair. Albert is justly proud of the 11 pound boy that made its appearance at his house on the 10th inst.

In the case of the Commonwealth vs. Marvin Brown, Blaine Westerfield, Daward Allen, Malcom Martin and Willie Martin who were charged with a breach of the peace, the jury failed to agree in trial here Monday.

Miss Susie D. Wright, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Heber Matthews for two weeks and attending the meeting in which her father was engaged here, returned to her home in Central City yesterday.

r. John Ellis died at the residence of his daughter, rs. Ethel Eagan, 530 S. Workman street, Los Angeles, Cal., after an illness of eight months of cancer of the bowels. His remains were entered in the Montecito cemetery by the side of his wife, who preceded him about twenty-five years. The deceased, who was the half brother of our late countyman, Mr. A. C. Ellis, left the county in 1849 during the rush to the gold fields in California. He never returned to his native heath and Prof. A. E. Ellis, son of Mr. A. C. Ellis, we are informed, is the only near relative from this county whom he has seen since he left his native State. Prof. Ellis spent several weeks as his guest about three years ago. One daughter, Mrs. Eagan, and son Ed survive him.

Rev. G. J. Bean will preach at East Providence church at 11 o'clock a. m. on the 5th Sunday in this month.

Messrs. E. Crabtree, Noah Skaggs, and J. F. Vickers went to Louisville on the early train this morning to attend the State Fair.

In the rush of business last week we failed to note that Mr. McDowell Fogle, who had been spending his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Fogle, had returned to Georgetown to resume his course in college there.

Mrs. Louis Rogers, Mrs. Clarence Robertson, Mr. J. W. Ross and wife, Rockport; Chas. W. Mullikin, McHenry; Henry Eldson and C. M. Hoover, Friedaland; Samuel Davidson, Barrett's Ferry; J. T. Ashby, Centertown, and Ray Rains, Manda, were among our callers Saturday.

Mr. J. E. Maddox, Rockport, who had been the guest of his sons, E. R. Maddox, Kising, Ark., and H. G. Maddox, Cherry Valley, Ark., for two weeks, returned home Monday. His son at Rising is bookkeeper for a big timber firm and the other is cashier of a bank at Cherry Valley.

The following Hartford people are or will be in attendance at the Kentucky State Fair at Louisville this week: Thos. H. Black, wife and daughter, Mrs. John R. Phipps and little son, W. S. Tinsley, Editors C. M. Barnett and Heber Matthews and Mrs. Matthews, Mrs. Dr. E. W. Ford.

Mr. Dudley Ford was elected Monday afternoon by the Finance Committee of the A. S. of E. to take charge of and manage the Equity warehouse at Hartford for the 1907 crop. Mr. Ford, who is a most excellent gentleman, takes the place of Mr. J. F. Vickers, who has had charge of the business for the past two years.

Mr. Jas. E. Culver, an engineer and electrician, of Louisville, has been employed by the Light Company and took charge Tuesday. Mr. Culver's family will not move to Hartford for a few months yet. Mr. Culver comes highly recommended as a gentleman as well as machinist and Hartford is glad of this addition to her industry and citizenship.

Mr. J. C. Ramage and Miss Annie Melton, of Providence Ky., were quietly married at the residence of Mr. A. E. Pate yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Miss Melton had been the guest of Mrs. Pate for the past week and Mr. Ramage came up and after the ceremony by Rev. Frank Baker the couple left for Louisville to attend the State Fair.

Mr. L. E. Dodd, an attorney of Zanesville, Ohio, accompanied by Mr. Peter O. McKinney, who has recently purchased 1,200 acres of coal land at Centertown, is in Hartford this week, preparatory to taking over the property. Messrs. Barnes & Anderson having completed the abstracts for the company, Mr. Dodd is here to approve the title, and payment will be made at once. The deal involves an expenditure of about $25,000.

While attending the Fair last Saturday, Mr. Carroll Smith, of McHenry, had his leg broken in a peculiar manner. While riding in a wagon, his feet hanging out over the rear end, another wagon ran against his vehicle, and the tongue of the other wagon accidentally struck young Smith's leg, crushing and breaking it. He was brought up to town and Dr. Ford set the broken limb. At last accounts he was getting along as well as could be expected.

Rev. J. A. Lewis preached his farewell sermon at the Methodist church here last Sunday night to a large and appreciative audience. His numerous friends regret very much to give him and his most excellent family up. He has now retired from active church work, owing to his age and enfeebled condition of his health. He will leave Saturday for Olmstead, South Logan county, where he has purchased a house and three acres of ground at the price of $1,950.

The protracted meeting of the Christian church, which had been in progress here with a short intermission for the past three weeks, closed Monday night with a lecture by Rev. John T. Brown, who has been doing the preaching. There were only a few conversions, but the meeting was a great success in point of good preaching and interest manifested. The meeting was well attended at each service, and its good effects will be felt for many days to come.
